President's Column

by James Morrow

Cribbage Fever As the 2022 season comes to an end, I looked back at the August 2002 Cribbage World.

A lot has changed in twenty years. We now have color, with pictures that aren't a mystery of who is in them. DeLynn Colvert was editor then, and David Aiken is now (sixteen years and counting). Game Colony was advertising their new online site; it wouldn't be until 2004 that the ACC had an internet division playing on the GC site, but now playing on both ecribbage and GC.

The tournament commissioners were George Bickford, Joe Bernard, and Roy Hofbauer. Average tournament attendance was around 85 players. On page 10, David Campbell was rookie of the year with over 1,000 MRPs.

A few things haven't changed. "Club 29" listed all players who held a 29-hand in sanctioned play for the year. In 2002, eighteen players were listed, including four future HOF members.*

The regional standings listed the top players in each region. In the Eastern Region, Bruce Sattler was #10, David Statz was #11, and Larry Phifer was #12. Today they are still ranked, but a little higher: Larry is #4, Bruce is #5, and David is #9.

The Central Region 2002 standings saw Emilio Perez at #7 and Doug Page at #8. In 2022, Doug is #3 and Emilio #6.

In the Western Region, Bob Bartosh was #69 (currently #3), and clear down at #87 was Erik Locke, who is currently first in the West.

The headline of a story on page 19 reads "ACC Has Record Year," with 153 sanctioned tournaments. This year, we had 144 sanctioned tournaments.

The 2002 CW also says: "Cribbage fever, catch it . . . and join the fun!" That hasn't changed. We need to help everyone we know catch cribbage fever. We need to make cribbage fun.

* Editor's note: the number of 29-hands in tournament play has fallen precipitously this year. With less than a month to go in the season, only one 29 has surfaced (see page 16).

Never Give Up

© Late this winter two Club 124 (Richmond VA) peggers were battling in a regular Thursday night session. Veteran player Robins Buck, with strong play on second and third streets, held a seemingly insurmountable lead. Only two holes out as dealer, he continued to spout his “you’re not out of it yet” spiel, yet at the same time chortling at the prospect of victory as opponent and relative newbie Mike Stott was 30 holes out. Here’s how the pegging went:

Mike	4		4 (for 2)		6 (for 2)		5 (for 2)
Robins		7		10		10	K (for 1)

A good sport in the loss, Robins was most upset that when the 6 was revealed as the cut card, because Mike’s facial expression never foreshadowed his good fortune.

A fairly new ACC member, Mike has enjoyed some success in the weekly games this year, including winning pool prizes for designated unusual hands (i.e., 3-3-3-6-6) and getting his first competitive 28-hand. Never give up!

If you have a “never give up” story, please send it to cwed152@gmail.com.

My Deal

by David Aiken

Play smart, play fair, play fast—but mostly play nice

On the next page is my scorecard from the Rampart Casino Open main in Las Vegas NV on June 18. ➔ It's not particularly spectacular, but I'm kinda proud of it, for several reasons.

First of all, I was high qualifier (which I haven't done in a twenty-two-game tourney for a long while). Second, I overcame a skunk in my first game. And third, I went to lunch with only six points and scored 28 points after lunch!

This last statement—while technically true—is not quite as impressive as it sounds. Because of a scheduling conflict at the casino's buffet, we had to go to lunch at 11:00, after six games. At that point I was 3–3, so does that make me the only ACC member to become high qualifier after having only three wins before lunch?

Now about that skunk in game one, lethally administered by Ron James (Scottsdale AZ). After this shellacking, I said to Ron: "A lot of championship rounds of golf started with a bogey on the first hole." Little did I know how good my cards would get after my 3–3 start, as I lost only three more games the rest of the day. How come I can't do that every tourney?!

Many people swear by (or at least parrot) the adage: "Never skunk someone in game one." Well, this is Exhibit A for the opposite: it's okay to get beaten—or skunked—in game one. Just keep plugging away, as you never know what might happen.

All in all, this was a fun day for me (see also "Dispatches from the Left Coast" on page 16), and I'll remember it fondly. But just so you know that I don't do this all the time, I've also experienced the other end of the Bell Curve.

For example, I have played the Marv Lang Memorial in Rockford IL twice. Both times I was low qualifier, both times with 26 (26/13 -21 in 2018 and an even lower 26/12 +107 in 2021), and both times finishing fifth. This tourney is next up on my docket. Tune in next month to see if I can lower the bar once again!

Also: next month's Cribbage World will feature a HQ scorecard that is nearly 33% better than my Vegas card. CW

The Good Cribbage Samaritan

by Jon Kline (Lincoln CA)

© As a postscript to the Reno JPW/ACC Open in March . . .

For my second tournament ever I entered the Cribbage Bowl in Reno. I saw Bill O'Malley's wonderful peg selection and bought a set of blue pegs, hoping they'd bring me luck in the Cribbage Bowl. And they did—delivering a nice 18/9 +161, good for 20th out of 262!

Unfortunately when I returned to my hotel room the pegs were nowhere to be found. No luck finding them the next morning, but when I sat down for the main, a lady sitting across from me had bought the same set of pegs from Bill! I told my sad story to Wendy Pitts (Green Bay WI) while complimenting her peg selection.

Neither of us had much luck through the first nine games, so Wendy insisted that I take her blue pegs, saying: "They aren't bringing me any luck; maybe they'll do better for you."

I tried to pay her for them but nothing doing. Unfortunately my luck didn't improve much after lunch, but around game twenty I saw someone look at Wendy's card and say: "Boy have you been on a hot streak after lunch!" When we finished play I went over to Wendy, looked at her card, and congratulated her for making the playoffs with 31/14 +166.

Wendy won ten of eleven games right after gifting me her pegs. It just proves to me that in cribbage nice things can really happen to nice people. Thanks again Wendy.

I took some of my Cribbage Bowl winnings and bought three more sets of Bill's pegs prior to the consy. No luck with them there, but better luck and a good story to tell back at my Grass Roots club in Auburn CA.

Wendy's scorecard ← with her/my pegs!

The ACC Grand National 40 in Omaha is now just a month away. The activities begin Tuesday evening, September 20, and run through Sunday, September 25. The tournaments are being held at Comfort Inn & Suites, 7007 Grover Street in Omaha, just off 72nd Street and I-80 at Exit 449.

If you need a free shuttle from the Omaha airport, please call the Comfort Inn twenty-four hours in advance at 402.934.4900 with your airline and arrival time. They will do their best to provide a ride, but nothing is guaranteed these days.

Our location is not glamorous, but I promise we will have good cribbage events that start on time with excellent prize payouts. Thanks in advance to our Grand National Committee and all the volunteers who help make it possible.

Please contact Scott Kooistra with any questions.

Cribbage and/in Pop Culture

In the golf novel Too Much Loft, two college-age boys consider cribbage as evening entertainment (pages 300–301):

We helped with the dishes. With the sun skimming the treetops we then repaired to our modest screen porch.

“You ever play board games?” I asked.

“Monopoly.”

“Ever play cribbage?”

“That a board game?”

“Old English game played with a deck of cards and a peg board. Fast paced, lots of strategy to it. The board is small enough to carry in a satchel, allowing you to play most anywhere.”

“You got a board? Show me.”

And that’s how the two of us passed much of our spare time until our social lives took intriguing turns.

The Inside Track

by Rob Medeiros

I often advocate for players varying their games—especially their lead card as pone—so as not to fall into predictable patterns.

One of the better hands that qualifies for this variance is 2-3-4-9 as pone. Usually the 3 is a nice safe lead here: you have the 9 to cover a 3 match and a 2 for a picture response. A 9 lead also provides excellent disguise for this holding. If dealer has four pictures or three pictures and a 5, you will be able to score a run on both.

If dealer makes the count 19, I prefer a 4 response to a 3. If the 4 is matched to make the count 27, you are safe from major damage. But if you play the 3 on 19 and the dealer matches it to make the count 25, you are left with a 2 or 4, and both are obviously very unappealing choices.

Okay, Rob, that sounds great but what if the dealer plays a 6 on the opening 9 lead? Well you could play it safe and play a 2 to make the count 17, but I prefer to lay a little trap here. Play your 4 to make the count 19. The dealer could be enticed into playing a 5 for a three-card run. With the count at 24 you could play the 3 for the four-card run and pray for that go—enabling you to play your 2 for a five-card run and go for six—obviously a nice pegging bonanza!

But this play has other repercussions. The 5 is the most powerful pegging card a dealer can have, so if you put the thought in his head that it could also be a major detriment while playing you, it could force your opponent into overthinking and that might lead to poor decision making. In any sport or game the more things that your opponent has to worry about only enhances your chances of success.

Tourney Tidbits

Canadian Slam At the Montana Spring Championship in Missoula on June 4, Frank Hanson and Carl Vennes (both Spokane WA) teamed up for Canadian Doubles—in a big way! They scored a grand slam with four skunks, easily taking first place with 22/9 +209. ➔ But this team is not a one-trick pony. Carl and Frank also won traditional doubles in Worley ID on May 28. ➔

Nevada Slam When Bob Joslin (MN) headed west for the Nevada cluster (Las Vegas, Topaz, Reno), like most of us, he wanted to have a good time playing cribbage and hopefully cover some of his travel expenses. He did both. Bob finished fifth in one tourney and took first place twice, the Topaz Lake Summer Classic main and Independence Day Classic consy! The second win ➔ was unusual in that Bob wasn't even going to play, but when the field had 73 players, he jumped in only to make it even—and then he won it! These two wins come just a month after Bob won the Cribbage Weekend in America main in Appleton WI in May. So three sanctioned wins in the space of six week. Nice guys do finish first sometimes!

Well, it was fun while it lasted. Yours Truly had qualified in seven consecutive mains (a personal best), but when I got to Vegas I hit the proverbial wall: two mains, two consolations, and Canadian Doubles. Nothing, nada, zip, zero, nary a point or a nickel in any event. It was so bad I had a 24 against John (“Big Bird”) Bakeberg (Scottsdale AZ), which offended him so much that he proceeded to hand me one of the eight skunks I suffered over the weekend. Hoping to start a new streak in Sacramento.

Speaking of Vegas, my friend Deb Beddoe (Carlsbad CA) won the Thursday main (her first win) and hooked up with your erstwhile CW editor, Mr. Aiken, for Canadian Doubles. Deb somehow convinced (coerced?) Dave to enter all the side pots, which they did. Their seventh-place finish was good enough to get a few bucks back from the pools. Encouraged by that experience, Dave (who never gets in side pools) entered all of them in the next day’s main. Wouldn’t you know, he was high qualifier and cleaned up.

It being Father’s Day weekend the Bartoshes, pere et fils, showed up. Son Scott (Grass Valley CA) made it to the final four and final two in the two mains. Dad Bob was heard to mutter: “I taught him everything he knows but I didn’t teach him everything I know.”

Everyone agrees that the host Marriott Hotel and Rampart Casino in Summerlin will make a great venue for an upcoming Grand National, if awarded.

In Topaz Lake, main winner Jim Langley (Red Bluff CA) was playing a time passer game with Bob Prochnow (San Diego CA), with a small bit of filthy lucre on the side. After counting his hand Jim needed eight to get out, while Bob needed two. The crib had three 8s and a pair of Kings; Jim gleefully said: “I’ve got six” and pegged accordingly, leaving him two out. Bystander Rick Baird (Bend OR) said: “Huh, that’s funny, in Oregon we usually take two for a pair of Kings.” After Jim nearly gave himself a concussion from repeated head slapping, he obligingly cut the Jack so game, set, and match to Bob. It’s true what they say: “It happens to all of us.”

Over and Out.

Vicki's Cribbage Vibes

Stories about Cribbage on the Eastern Seaboard

◆ by Vicki Soule ◆ soule1994@comcast.net ◆

The 2020 New England Long Match is finally down to the final four. It took two years, but who's counting? NELM started at the Medeiros Memorial in Wolfeboro NH in January 2020. Then Covid hit. The world changed and finally, two years later, we have the final four: Laurie Hardy (Topsham ME) vs. William Shoemaker (Bloomfield CT) and Jerry Hardy (ditto) vs. Richard Weston (Marlborough NH). Hopefully, when we start the 2023 New England Long Match, it will finish before the year is out.

Speaking of the Hardys, ➔ they are steamrolling peggers all throughout New England. On May 21, in Ellsworth ME, Jerry won the 35-person Maine State Championship.* Jerry beat Laurie in the semifinals, then beat Peter Legendre in the finals.

On June 25, the Hardys hosted the Live Free or Die Tournament in Brookline NH. Out of 90+ peggers, Jerry and Laurie both made the playoffs—again.

As luck would have it, they were matched against each other in the first round. As a famous New England pegger says: “It was a popcorn match!” Laurie came out the winner and went on to win her own tournament! The next New England tournament was in Bangor ME on July 8–10. This time it was Jerry's turn to run the boards and come out victorious over visitor Keith Widener.

A new New England tournament will be held on December 9–11 in Wolfeboro NH—the first annual David Campbell Memorial. This is being played at the Windrifter Resort, where Sheila Chittum is the manager. David met Sheila back in 2002 when she was sales manager for Best Western in Portsmouth. Sheila has been a supporter of the ACC for twenty years. We are looking forward to this tournament and honoring our friend and past ACC president.

*Editor's note: there were two couples at this tournament, Vicki and Mark Soule, and Jerry and Laurie. All four players qualified, but only two of these players won a match.

ACC Awards

James Langley
(Red Bluff CA)
Life Master (5★) #4

Two retired Air Force guys at Aero Jet taught Jim how to play cribbage during lunch breaks. He joined the ACC in 1985 and looks to DeLynn Colvert's book as his cribbage mentor. Jim has been club champion of Redding Peggers Club 205 multiple times. He won his first ACC tournament in the early 90s in Oroville CA and has now won 69 of them, which is #4 on the list of lifetime wins. Jim's toughest opponent is Jeanne Jelke. His favorite tournament is Topaz Lake, which was the scene of his favorite cribbage moment this year: he qualified in last place with a 26 card and won the 2022 Les Sumner Memorial on June 24. Non-cribbage interests include family, bridge, and number puzzles. Jim occasionally skips playing in consolations on Sundays and heads to church.

Jeanne's dad taught her to play cribbage when she was a teenager. (Both parents were ACC members.) She joined the ACC in 1999 and has some impressive cribbage mentors: Jim Langley, Ras Rasmussen, and DeLynn Colvert's book. A member of Redding Peggers Club 205, she has been club champion once. Jeanne has won 41 tournaments, plus the 2017 TOC. She is particularly fond of Nevada tourneys and Pacific Coast tourneys. Jeanne's toughest opponent is Jim Langley. Her favorite cribbage moment this year was qualifying five times during the five-tournament Nevada cluster in June, which gave her enough MRPs to earn her third star, so that she can get the award in Omaha at the same time Jim receives his Five Star award. Non-cribbage interests include family (two children, two grandkids, one dog), friends, travel, Rotary, and volunteering. Jeanne spent nearly nine years in Papua New Guinea between 1978 and 1986, where she was national director of the Red Cross.

Scott Kooistra
(Yankton SD)
Life Master (2★) #50

{Scott's words} My father, Jack, taught me to play cribbage and many other card games well before I was ten years old. I played my first tournament—the National Open in Raleigh NC—when I was a teenager forty-three years ago before the ACC was formed. In the early 80s I traveled with Jeff Shimp and Jim Fabian, and I think we helped each other get a little better. My toughest opponent this year has been Steve Steinmetz; I just can't beat him! I was proud to serve on the ACC Board of Directors for over twenty years, including many years as the Executive VP and one year as interim president. In 1990 I won the national MRP race, and thirty-two years later I have done so again.* I reached the Two Star level by winning the Rampart Open in Las Vegas in June, and it's been great to attend so many tourneys for the first time over the past year. I was very honored to be elected to the ACC Hall of Fame when I was thirty years old, and this year I am directing Grand National for the fourth time—in four different decades. I was in the broadcasting business for thirty-six years. I live alone with no children, so my family is absolutely my ACC cribbage friends!

* Editor's note: Scott earned 2,182 MRPS in 1990 when he was national champion. This year he has 2,185 MRPs (as of July 17).

Cribbage Club Code of Congeniality

During a new player's trial period (four visits or until they earn points—whichever is longer) . . .

- We pledge to welcome new players warmly and make them feel wanted.
- We pledge to not penalize new players for violating tournament rules. (We will, instead, gently tell them what the rule is and what the penalty would be.)
- We pledge to not let new players underpeg points or undercount hands. (We will, instead, explain errors and then allow new players to take all points they are entitled to.)
- We pledge to not make new players feel inferior if/when they miss points or make a bad play. (We will, instead, let them know that all cribbage players do this and that it is part of the learning process.)
- We pledge to not force new players to play a game in fifteen minutes. (We will, instead, be tolerant and not complain, remembering that we, too, started slow.)
- We pledge to allow new players to play for free or at the minimum cost of club expenses and Grass Roots/ACC dues.

After the trial period is up . . .

- We pledge to continue to make all players—new and existing—feel welcome and comfortable at our club.

Double 55 Friday's satellite at Marinette WI was loaded with big cards. Wayne Steinmetz had a nice 18 card, including two skunks of 55 on his first and last games.

← But hold the phone! Henry Brandner needed and got a skunk on his last game to edge out Wayne with his 19 card. How would you like to take third with an 18 card? Just ask Terry Weber.

First Game Skunk I wonder if John Schaefer of Battle Creek MI believes in the "don't skunk your first opponent" rule? At Slinger WI, granted it may have taken five games to take effect, but it got ugly after that, as John dropped thirteen in a row. ↓

29-Hand It's always nice to get out to a fast start. That's what happened to me during the consy at Slinger. I cut the

5 of Spades for a 28! As we know, a 28-hand does not guarantee a win and I won in Slinger by only 16. The only other 28 hand was held by Donna LaFleur (Bristol CT).

New Names The Frosty/Steinmetz Shuffle and Steinmetz/Frosty Shuffle need new names. These tournaments were originally started as the Schaefer Shuffle by Al and Sharon Schaefer, now of Henderson NV. After many years of working with Wayne Steinmetz, Richard Frost has decided to pull the plug. He will, however, continue playing and be Lil' Moose's personal chauffeur.

Not Steve In the past, Cribbage World editor David Aiken has scolded me for writing too much about the Steinmetz brothers. My defense is they deserve it. I've said I would rather play HOF Wayne than brother Steve. Case in point is Steve's famous Green Bay grand slam from a few years ago. While playing me in game nine, he was 32 out, pegged 4, and laid down his 28 for the win and slam. Then you have the 29 that I dealt him. I have come to the conclusion it's just not fair playing two against one. What do I mean by that? Well, it's either Steve + Jack Daniels or Steve + Gentleman Jack. The main at Slinger WI was no different. Steve was unconscious in his card playing. One can only imagine what was going through the mind of his first opponent, newbie Michael Van Beekeeper (West Bend WI), after being skunked and almost double skunked with a net of -91 in two games. After the first five games, Steve already had 12 points and by the twelve-game lunch break, he had already qualified. ↓ How many times have you had four skunks in a row? Probably never for most of us. Steve had four in a row twice! Of the fifteen games he won, nine were skunks, for a 60% skunk ratio. What is the most plus points you have ever seen in a twenty-two-game main? I bet it was a lot less than +333. Steve tried his best to get a 40-card but came up one point short, tying his previous high card of 39. Maybe now you can understand why I prefer playing Wayne. Steve must have used up all the good cards/cuts the previous tournament (which he won), and was one and done. From the red marks on game 19 you can tell he didn't like entering a loss!

Oldest Is Best After winning the Peg for Pink tournament, Frank Danielski was quick to point out that Doug Page was there, which meant that Frank wasn't the oldest player at that tournament, which had been reported on Facebook. His prowess around the cribbage board enabled him to again capture the main title—this time at the Steinmetz/Frosty Shuffle. Frank's wife, Ginny, → watches intently as he defeats Don Flesch in the finals. Looks like they saved the best for the oldest this time, as Doug was not there.

Huge congrats to Sue Edwards (CO434S-ue) for achieving her Life eMaster (★) Award! Sue is now the seventh player—and first female—to reach this level in the seventeen-year history of ACC internet play. It takes 10,000 IRPs and an average of twelve years to get to this prestigious pinnacle. Sue now joins Mike Fetchel, Dan Crete, Bill MacMillan, John Schafer, Rick Shea, and Tom Langford. She recently earned her Life Master in tournaments play as well. Kudos to Sue on her amazing accomplishments!

By the time you read this, the ACC's internet season will be over, with the new season starting August 1. I'm looking forward to giving Sue, Tom, and Rick their Life eMaster (★) trophies at Grand National, as well as the internet champ's trophy. Paul Gregson is trying to hold on to his lead, but our president, James Morrow, is still trying hard to knock him out! Sue Edwards is third and on a roll, Jeff Raynes is fourth, and Bernard Kitheka is fifth. With about 35 tournaments monthly, you just never know who will be the champ!

In addition, anyone who earns eMaster (2K IRPs), Grand eMaster (4K IRPs), and Life eMaster (6K IRPs) by July 31 (including the Game Colony tournament that evening) will also receive a trophy for this season. I'll be presenting all trophies at the Grand National awards banquet. If you won't be there, please make arrangements with someone who can pick it up for you any time during GN.

The link below lists every award winner in ACC internet play. It is updated around the first of each month, as are all of the stats on our website.

GAME ON

by Dan Zeisler

Teaching Tip

{PHOTO} A few weeks ago, I received this email from

P. J. Madigan, an eighth-grade math teacher (edited for length):

One of the coolest parts of my job is teaching cribbage to my 8th graders at Alder Creek Middle School in Truckee CA. I typically have a group of 15–20 students. I use Dan Zeisler’s Teacher’s Manual for the Youth Cribbage Program. The manual says: “The single most important learning tool is the enthusiasm of the instructor.” I agree 100%, and I get pretty fired up about teaching students cribbage. Using this manual, students are playing the game by the end of the first week and improving their skills quickly after that. By the final week I introduce warmups from dailycribbagehand.org. I make it a point to play against every student at least once. Students who beat me get to sign the “I beat Mr. Madigan in Cribbage” poster, and I give them a candy bar of their choice—king size if they skunk me. A few of my cribbage teaching hacks:

- Those two-piece plastic travel soap containers are great for storing decks of cards.
- Buy 12-packs of playing cards and when you replace them, get the exact same kind. When a playing card gets lost or damaged, you have replacement.

News

Due to several obstacles (personal issues, lack of venue), there will be no Youth Grand National in 2022. We will strive to make it happen in 2023.

George Mackie
(Seattle WA)
Platinum #15

George's dad taught him how to play cribbage. George joined the ACC in 1988, and the late great Jim Hornbacher (died April 2020) was his cribbage mentor. A member of SeaTac Peggers Club 148 in Federal Way, he has been club champion multiple times. His toughest opponent at club is Dick Koch. A Life Master in tournament play, he has won eighteen sanctioned events, including the Mount Saint Helens Classic in Longview WA on June 12—which easily qualifies as his favorite cribbage moment this year! George's non-cribbage interests include fishing in Alaska. Weird fact: while in the hospital for another illness, George had two heart attacks!

Pam's dad taught her how to play cribbage. She joined the ACC in 2000, and the late great Norm Nikodym was her cribbage mentor. A member of Club 68 in Hacienda Heights, she has been club champion four times. A Life Master (★), she has won twenty-one tournaments. Pam enjoys doing things with her five grandchildren, knitting, gardening, and walking. Pam was born in Canada, and her dad was in the Royal Air Force during WWII.

Pamela Pomeroy
(Norwalk CA)
Gold #180

{Nancy's words} I learned how to play cribbage from Aggie Vaught in Whittemore IA. I joined the ACC in 1992 while working in Richmond VA, where I met Rick Allen. I started playing weekend tournaments in 2001, and my cribbage mentor is Annett Eiffert. I am a twenty-year member of River City Peggers in Carmichael CA, but I have never been club champion; I have been an All Star for about seventeen years in a row. I obtained my Gold at the Auburn CA club on the last week of this season. Annett drove me to Auburn, where I had my last chance of the year, and I was able to score an 18-card. My recent favorite cribbage moment was attending the Las Vegas tournaments after not being able to play for about eight months because of an injury. Non-cribbage interests include oil painting and spending time with my wonderful family.

GRASS ROOTS CORNER

Jackson Peggery Club 332 celebrated not one, but two, nonagenarian birthdays on June 22. Jim Stratton turned 90 in February, and Walter Wasielewski hit the big 9-0 in June. Jim has been an ACC member and Jackson Pegger since 1996; he has been club champion several times, including this year. Walt is a charter ACC member and Club 332 director for seventeen years. His favorite tournament was the National Open in Raleigh, placing third in 1985. Congratulations, guys, for a great accomplishment. Here's to many more years of pegging.

Middle Atlantic Cribbage Society/ Club 115 (Elkins Park PA) celebrated the ninetieth birthday of longtime director Frank Wurman at the July meeting.

Club 419 (Laguna Woods CA)—Jim Jones has won the club championship five years in a row! Jim is 75 years old and is originally from England.

GRASS ROOTS CORNER

Club 329 (Shepherd MI)—
Lori Fuller shows off her championship award as the first female champ in that club.

Honorable Mention

In his first year, David Hayes (Club 202, Boise ID) had 219 GRPs and fell short of Rookie of the Year by a single point!

And now for the ~~old~~ mature club champion category:

- John Siewert was champion of Club 120 (Wisconsin Rapids WI)—at age 93.
- Boyd McDonald was champion of Club 48 (Santa Clara CA) in 2020—at the age of 98 years, 210 days old.

MAST The oldest of the state All Star tourneys—Michigan All Star Tournament, or MAST—held its sixteenth annual event in Muskegon on July 31. Five clubs sent their top four players from the 2021–22 season, and they battled it out for the title “Best Cribbage Club in Michigan.” When the pegs were put back in the box, the home team, Muskegon 229, was the winner by a single game, edging out Kalamazoo 321 and Mount Pleasant 329 by a score of 75–73–70. The highest individual scorecard was posted by Rod Hovey → of the Kalamazoo club—proving that the terrible scorecards pictured in the June Cribbage World, page 27, were a fluke. Members of the winning team were Daniel Betz, John Ruffilo, Rick Wallenstein, and Steve DePouw. ↓ Other participating clubs were Grand Rapids 71 and Battle Creek 300. Here are team records for the sixteen-year history of MAST. →

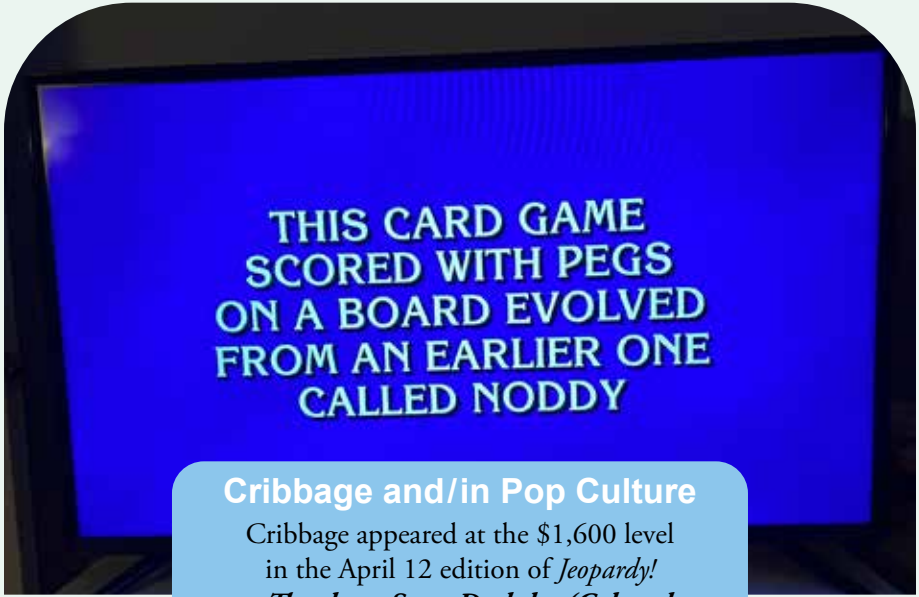

club	times won
Battle Creek	6
Muskegon	5
Grand Rapids	3
Mount Pleasant	2

Bob Maupin received his seventh 28-hand on June 22 at Kitsap Peggers Club 204. Rumor has it that Gordy Wise helped him count it! On July 13, club director Larry West got a 28-hand tonight. He needed no help counting.

IN MEMORY OF CRIBBAGE FRIENDS

Henry N. Carle

Henry “Hank” Carle moved on to the next grand adventure on July 13. Born in 1930 during the Depression, he spent his early years on his grandparents’ farm in Ferndale WA, where he delighted in riding the horse-drawn manure spreader and picking wild blackberries for his grandmother’s pies. While serving six years in the National Guard, he worked in restaurants and at Boeing in Seattle/Tacoma before making the move to Fairbanks, where he knew the devastation of the Fairbanks flood. In 1972, he moved to Anchorage to manage Kentucky Fried Chicken and H. Salt Seafood restaurants, and Anchorage is where he met his wife of forty-seven years, Arlene. Hank was a world traveler who loved fishing in the summer and cribbage in the winter (he had earned his Life Master rating and his Silver Award). He is survived by Arlene, six children, twelve grandchildren, and eighteen great-grandchildren.

Marilyn Hayden

Marilyn Faye Hayden (Kalamazoo MI) passed away on May 4. Marilyn was an avid golfer, VP of the Bowling Association for Women, and loved playing cribbage. She was married to Douglas, who survives, for almost fifty years. Marilyn joined Club 321 in Kalamazoo in 2012 and was an active member up until the Covid era. Since then she continued playing at home with Doug on an almost daily basis. She always had a smile on her face and joked around—even at cribbage (a rare attribute for older cribbage players!). She would tell each opponent before their game: “I don’t mind if you beat me—just don’t skunk me.” (Probably because she didn’t want to pay a quarter to the skunk jar!) Marilyn will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Steven Winston Hooker

Steve Hooker (Raleigh NC) passed away on June 25 at the age of sixty-four. A member of Club 58 in Raleigh, Steve’s first love was his family. His loyalty and faithfulness to care and protect were instinctual from the time he was a teenager. Steve was a well-known business leader in the community as marketing/catering director of Milton’s Pizza—a favorite of cribbage players, especially during the National Open. Steve loved the camaraderie of his poker and cribbage buddies for many years, and he enjoyed playing tournaments with his son and friends. He bragged that he was a Chicago Cubs fan before it was cool to be one. He was passionate about NC State Basketball and the Carolina Hurricanes. Fun fact: Steve was the first bartender in Raleigh to serve liquor by the drink. Steve will be missed by his family and cribbage friends.

Michael Morgan

Michael Morgan (Forney TX), a longtime member of Lone Star Club 106 in Dallas TX, passed away. A director and member for over twenty-five years, his love of the game had him sharing memories of the many years he played, the bad beats he had, and the wins that he made. His favorite saying was: “If only I had held this hand differently, I would have had more points.” Mike was also known for sharing jokes, most of them in the category of Bad Dad Jokes, lots of one-liners that were not funny but so bad you laughed anyway. Mike found his love for cribbage in the Air Force, where he was stationed in Alaska and met his wife, Barbara. Mike had a bad fall at the end of 2020 and fought for over a year to recover from a broken back that was inoperable due to other complications. He passed away on July 5 at the age of seventy-two. He will be sorely missed by his family and all of us who had the opportunity to play Mike in cribbage.

Gerald Thibodeau

Gerald Thibodeau (Manchester CT) passed away on June 17 at age eighty-one. A longtime employee of Cigna, he enjoyed playing cribbage at Hartford Metro Club 26, where he earned his Bronze Award. He will be missed by his many friends at club.

Cribbage Board of the Month BY JAY FULWIDER

ACC member Charlie Martin of Rhode Island sent this photo and family history of a unique hand-crafted board. Charlie's grandmother played on this board when she was young. She taught Charlie to play on it when he was six years old. His dad also played on this board, and

One final note on this board; Charlie experienced his most embarrassing loss on it when his seven-year-old son double skunked him!

Boards handcrafted by prisoners actually date back at least to the Napoleonic Wars in the early 1800s. I am aware of two historic Ameri-

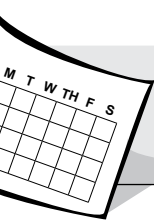

to this day Charlie's kids play on it. That is five generations and a long family history of cribbage.

Charlie's family purchased the board from the Rhode Island State Prison in the mid-1880s. At that time inmates could make various craft projects to sell in the prison store to help them raise funds to buy personal items. The board is made of oak and walnut. The counter at both ends of the board could be used for games won, but was most likely for scoring the game of Whist. Charlie made the pegs many years ago. One set is stainless steel and the other is beryllium/copper. As far as the initials on the board, no one has a clue.

can-made prison cribbage boards. Both were made by Dr. Samuel A. Mudd, who was imprisoned for treating John Wilkes Booth following President Lincoln's assassination. Dr. Mudd was assigned to the prison woodshop at Fort Jefferson in Florida. He made one board for a prison friend, Colonel John Waring, whose family later donated it to the American Civil War Museum in Richmond VA. The other board was a birthday gift to his wife on July 27, 1867. This board is on display at the Dr. Samuel A. Mudd House Museum in Waldorf MD.

Jay Fulwider collects cribbage boards in picturesque Washington State, where he also enjoys golf, fishing, and racquetball. His philosophy on the key to life: "Just keep your pegs moving." Ideas for and questions about this column may be sent to budandotis@msn.com (put "Cribbage Board" in the subject line).
